Chapter 11

Case No. 24-11967 (JKS)

MOTION OF PERC WALLACE FOR RELIEF FROM THE AUTOMATIC STAY

Perc Wallace (the “Movant”), by and through his undersigned counsel, hereby files his Motion for Relief from the Automatic Stay (the “Motion”) and, in support hereof, states as follows:

BACKGROUND

1. This Court has jurisdiction over this Motion pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 157 and 1334. This is a core proceeding pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1409(a). The statutory basis for relief requested herein is 11 U.S.C. § 362.

2. On or about July 3, 2024, while inside the Big Lots store located at 5518 New Cut Road, Louisville, KY (located in Jefferson County), Mr. Wallace tripped on an advertisement stand that was in a walkway and fell, causing a left traumatic bicep injury and a torn rotator cuff.

3. On September 9, 2024 (the “Petition Date”), Big Lots, Inc. and certain affiliated debtors (the “Debtors”), filed voluntary petitions for relief under Chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code. Since the Petition Date, the Debtors have managed their affairs and remained in possession of their assets as debtor in possession pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 1107 and 1108. These Chapter 11 cases are being jointly administered. No trustee or examiner has been appointed.

4. On 12/19/2024, Mr. Wallace filed proof of claim numbers 5458 and 5481 against Big Lots, Inc. and Big Lots Stores, LLC (the “Proofs of Claim”) asserting a general unsecured claim against each Debtor in the amount of not less than $300,000. In addition to two surgeries Mr. Wallace had in 2024 and 2025 as a result of the injuries he sustained on July 3, 2024, Mr. Wallace now understands from his health care providers that an additional surgery may be necessary, in which case the Proofs of Claim will likely be amended to reflect additional costs associated therewith.

5. Mr. Wallace seeks to file a complaint in the appropriate forum and prosecute to judgment claims and causes of action against the Debtors for injuries sustained (collectively, the “Causes of Action”).

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

6. This Court has jurisdiction over this Motion pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 157 and 1334. This is a core proceeding within the meaning of 28 U.S.C. § 157(b) and venue is proper pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1408 and 1409.

7. The statutory and other predicates for the relief sought herein are sections 105 and 362(d) of the Bankruptcy Code, Bankruptcy Rule 4001, and Local Rule 4001-1.

BASIS FOR RELIEF

8. Through this Motion, Movant seeks entry of an order pursuant to section 362(d) of the Bankruptcy Code and Rule 4001 of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure, granting relief so that he may prosecute his Causes of Action and satisfy any award or other resolution he may obtain against the Debtors' applicable insurance policies and any other responsible individual or entity.

9. Section 362(d)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code provides:

(d) On request of a party in interest and after notice and a hearing, the court shall grant relief from the stay provided under subsection (a) of this section, such as by terminating, annulling, modifying or conditioning such stay...

(1) For cause, including lack of adequate protection of an interest in property of such party in interest.

11 U.S.C. § 362(d)(1). The term "cause" is not defined in the Code but rather it must be determined on a case-by-case basis. In re Rexene Prods. Co., 141 B.R. 547, 576 (Bankr. D. Del. 1992) (internal citations omitted). "Cause is a flexible concept and courts often...examin[e] the totality of the circumstances to determine whether sufficient cause exists to lift the stay." In re SCO Group, Inc., 395 B.R. 852, 856 (Bankr. D. Del. 2007).

10. The logic of the intent behind § 362(d) is that it is often appropriate to allow litigation to proceed in a non-bankruptcy forum, if there is no prejudice to the estate, "in order to leave the parties to their chosen forum and to relieve the bankruptcy court from duties that may be handled elsewhere." In re Tribune Co., 418 B.R. 116, 126 (Bankr. D. Del. 2009) (quoting legislative history of § 362(d)).

11. As this Court has explained:

The legislative history indicates that cause may be established by a single factor such as "a desire to permit an action to proceed in another tribunal," or "lack of any connection with or interference with the pending bankruptcy case."

The legislative history to section (362(d)(1) emphasizes the section's applicability to proceedings in another tribunal. "It will often be more appropriate to permit proceedings to continue in their places of origin, when no great prejudice to the bankruptcy estate would result, in order to leave the parties to their chosen forum and to relieve the bankruptcy court from any duties that may be handled elsewhere."

Rexene Prods., 141 B.R. at 576 quoting H.R. Rep. No. 95-595, 95th Cong., 1st Sess., 343-344 (1977).

12. Courts conduct a “fact-intensive, case-by-case balancing test, examining the totality of the circumstances to determine whether sufficient cause exists to lift the stay.” In re The SCO Group, Inc., 395 B.R. 852, 857-58 (Bankr. D. Del. 2007). This Court has considered three factors when balancing the competing interest of a debtor and a movant: (a) the prejudice to either the bankruptcy estate or the debtor that would result should the stay be lifted; (b) any hardships facing the movant should the stay be maintained; and (c) the movant’s probability of success if the stay is lifted. Santa Fe Minerals v. BEPCO. L. P. (In re 15375 Memorial Corp.), 382 B.R. 652, 686 (Bankr. D. Del. 2008) (citing In re Continental Airlines, Inc., 152 B.R. 420, 424 (D. Del. 1993)); Rexene Prods., 141 B.R. at 576, rev’d on other grounds, 400 B.R. 420 (D. Del. 2009).

ARGUMENT

13. Cause exists to lift the automatic stay to allow Mr. Wallace to file a complaint against the Debtors and litigate the Causes of Action to judgment.

The Prejudice to the Debtors and The Estates is Minimal

14. First, the hardship to the estates would be minimal. Mr. Wallace seeks only to recover for the Causes of Action from available insurance proceeds of the Debtors’ insurance policies. Thus, even if the Defendant Debtors are found liable and a damages judgment is entered in favor of Mr. Wallace, he will not seek to recover any judgement from the Debtors’ estates absent further order of the Court. See In re 15375 Memorial corp., 382 B.R. 652 687 (Bankr. D. Del 2008), rev’d on other grounds, 400 B.R. 420 (D. Del. 2009) (“[W]hen a payment by an insurer cannot inure to the debtor’s pecuniary interest, then that payment should neither enhance nor decrease the bankruptcy estate,” (quoting In re Edgeworth, 993 F.2d 51, 55-56 (5th Cir. 1993)));

see also In re Allied Digital Tech Corp., 306 B.R. 505, 510 (Bankr. D. Del. 2004) (ownership by a bankruptcy estate is not necessarily determinative of the ownership of the proceeds of that policy). “[W]hen the debtor has no legally cognizable claims to the insurance proceeds, those proceeds are not the property of the estate.” In re Edgeworth, 993 F.2d 51,55-56 (5th Circ. 1993).

15. In response to several similarly filed motions for relief, Debtors filed Debtors’ Omnibus Objection to Motions for Relief from the Automatic Stay Under Section 362 of the Bankruptcy Code [D.I. No. 1103] (the “Omnibus Objection”). In it, they argued that the motions should be denied because they would otherwise be forced to incur defense costs and pay a $1 million self-insured retention (SIR) per occurrence under their general liability insurance policy with Starr Indemnity and Liability Company (the “Policy”), which has not exception for bankruptcy or insolvency.

16. With respect to the first argument, many courts have held that litigation expenses alone are “not so prejudicial as to require continuance of a stay.” In re Burger Boys, Inc., 183 B.R. 682, 688 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 1994); see also In re Santa Clara Cty. Fair Ass’n. Inc., 180 B.R. 564, 566 (B.A.P. 9th Cir. 1995) (“Ordinarily, litigation costs to a bankruptcy estate do not compel a court to deny stay relief.”); Matter of Nkongho, 59 B.R. 85 (Bankr. D. N.J. 1986) (“The Court of Appeals for the Third Circuit has declared that litigation expenses do not constitute an injury sufficient to justify the enjoining of litigation against a debtor.”) (internal citations omitted). This Court should reach the same conclusion.

17. With respect to the second argument, there may be insurance policies other than the Policy that could provide coverage with respect to the Causes of Action.

18. Moreover, many courts have concluded that, under certain circumstances, insurance policies are not executory contracts and a debtor’s failure to pay a retention or deductible does not relieve an insurer of its obligations under the policies. See, e.g., In re Vanderveer Estates Holding, LLC, 328 B.R. 18, 25 (Bankr. E.D.N.Y. 2005) (“[W]here (as in this case) an insured debtor has paid the policy premium in full, the insurance policy is not an executory contract for the purposes of § 365 of the Bankruptcy Code, even where the debtor has continuing obligations, such as the payment of a self-insured retention, a deductible, or a premium. Failure of the debtor to perform these continuing obligations does not excuse the insurer from performance under the contract, but gives rise to an unsecured claim by the insurer for any damages incurred by reason of the debtor’s breach of the policy.”). The Debtors cannot rely on the SIR to avoid lifting the stay.

19. Accordingly, the Debtors will not be prejudiced if this Court modifies the automatic stay to permit prosecution of the State Court Action because Mr. Wallace seeks only to recover from available insurance proceeds of the Debtors’ insurance policies.

The Hardship to Mr. Wallace is Great

20. Mr. Wallace will face significant hardship if this Court does not lift the automatic stay. Mr. Wallace has suffered, and continues to suffer, from the injuries he sustained. Furthermore, all relevant events related to the Causes of Action took place in Louisville, Kentucky where, as far as Mr. Wallace is aware, all relevant witnesses are located. Finally, delaying filing a complaint to pursue the Causes of Action can cause potential witnesses to forget first hand accounts of the event.

21. If Mr. Wallace is forced to litigate his claims in Delaware, he would incur the increased expense of bringing attorneys, witnesses, and physical evidence to Delaware. “[O]ne of the primary purposes in granting relief from the stay to permit claim liquidation is to economize judicial resources.” In re Peterson, 116 B.R. 247, 250 (D. Colo. 1990). Here, judicial economy would be served by lifting the automatic stay and allowing Mr. Wallace’s claims to be liquidated in the forum in which they arose. Moreover, the Debtors will not suffer any hardship if a complaint is filed and the Causes of Action are prosecuted. Mr. Wallace's claim is a garden variety personal injury claim which does not present any factual or legal issues which will impact or distract the Debtors from their reorganizing process.

22. Without relief from the stay, Mr. Wallace will not be able to liquidate his claim against the Debtors or receive any compensation from any available insurance proceeds.

Mr. Wallace is Likely to be Successful on the Merits of the State Court Action

23. Mr. Wallace's claims are meritorious, and he is prepared to proceed with filing a complaint and prosecuting the Causes of Action. Given the opportunity, he believes that he will be able to show that the Debtors were negligent, giving rise to the Causes of Action, and satisfying this prong of the test. "[E]ven a slight probability of success on the merits may be sufficient to support lifting an automatic stay." In re Continental Airlines, Inc., 152 B.R. 420,426 (D. Del. 1993).

24. Accordingly, Mr. Wallace respectfully requests that this Court lift the automatic stay so that he may prosecute the Causes of Action.

WAIVER OF RULE 4001(a)(3) STAY IS APPROPRIATE

25. Bankruptcy Rule 4001(a)(3) provides that an order vacating the automatic stay is subject to a fourteen (14) day stay unless the court orders otherwise. Fed. R. Bankr. P. 4001(a)(3). Here, Mr. Wallace requests that Rule 4001(a)(3) be waived to allow hi to proceed immediately in the appropriate forum.

NO PRIOR REQUEST

26. Mr. Wallace has not made any prior motion for the relief sought herein to this or any other Court.

NOTICE

27. Notice of this Motion will be provided to: (i) counsel to the Debtors; (ii) the Office of the United States Trustee; (iii) counsel to the Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors; (iv) and all parties entitled to notice pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 2002 and Local Rule 4001- 1(a). Mr. Wallace submits that such notice is sufficient and that no other or further notice need be provided.

CONCLUSION

WHEREFORE, Mr. Wallace respectfully requests that this Court (i) enter the proposed order attached hereto as Exhibit A; and (ii) grant such other and further relief as is deemed just and equitable.
